The New Club House Obtained—Minor Mention.

The committee on by-laws of the Lincoln lodge No. 39, will report at Monday evening's session.

Omaha lodge No. 39 will give a grand ball at their rooms in Continental block next Wednesday evening. A number of Lincoln Elks expect to attend and participate in the festivities.

Regular communication of Lincoln lodge No. 80 on Monday evening next. Six new members will be given the first degree.

Brother F. C. Zehrung, exalted ruler of Lincoln lodge, attended the session of Omaha No. 39 this week and received a royal welcome.

The trustees of No. 80 have about completed arrangements with Mr. Schaberg for the leasing of the second floor of his building, on the southeast corner of Eleventh and F streets. This will give them a supper room 75x45 feet, a lodge room 20x60, with all the necessary servant's rooms, ante rooms, etc. It is expected that the club will be able to obtain possession by the 10th of May, just two months after the organization of the lodge. This is a most excellent showing for the baby lodge.

The south room on the first floor of the new Elks' headquarters would be an excellent place for a caterer, who would thus secure the entire patronage of the members. By the 1st of May the lodge will have at least seventy-five members, and of that number fully twenty-five take their lunch down town. Besides these there would be many who would attend after the theatre or the party. The right man would have a good thing.

Miss May Potvin will leave Monday for a two weeks' visit in Omaha. While in the metropolis she will play in a concert to be given at Boyd's opera house on Tuesday evening next. Miss Potvin is one of Lincoln's most accomplished pianists and has many friends in Omaha who delight to hear her at every opportunity.

Mr. and Mrs. Heiskell entertained the whist club of which they are members, at their home on E street on Thursday evening the 23d. A very enjoyable time was had by all present. On the Friday evening following they entertained a select number of friends. Card playing was the chief feature of the evening's entertainment.

Miss Allen Oakley gave a delightful party on Friday evening the 23d, to the Pleasant Hour Juniors. The reputation of the young lady as a hostess renders all comment unnecessary. Every one present noted it one of the most delightful parties of the season, the only regret of the evening being that the hour for dispersing to the various homes arrived all too soon.

THE THEATRICAL WORLD.

A WEEK'S REVIEW AND PROSPECTIVE.

The Field of Amusement in Lincoln. News About Plays, Actors, Etc.

THE REHAN COMEDY COMPANY.

One of the best plays of the season was the one presented at the Funke on Tuesday evening last by the Arthur Rehan Comedy company. It was essentially a society and domestic drama, and several very good morals were aptly pointed. There was an agreeable absence of wishy-washy sentiment and the horse-play that characterizes the comedies of Hoyt and others of his class, being in every respect refined and appealing to the higher emotions. The excellence of each member was such that individual mention is precluded, but they are all artists of a high order of talent. The plot turns on the domestic infidelities of two society women whose husbands prefer a quiet evening or two at home each week, which their spouses' social duties will not admit of. Both wives return to their parental home, angry and indignant, but by the help of a cleverly managed scheme of one of the husbands, everything is brought to a happy ending, and love again reigns triumphant.

SAM'L OF FOSEN.

On Monday evening next the old favorite "Sam'l of Fosen," will be presented by the Funke. Mr. Frank E. Queen appearing in the title role. This play, which is one of the most amusing ever staged, has stood the test of time and drawn large houses wherever presented. Mr. Queen is supported by a very strong company and the play will be staged in a first class manner. "Sam'l of Fosen" is the play which gave fame and fortune to M. B. Curtis, but in the hands of Frank Queen the character has lost none of its originality. On the contrary it is greatly strengthened, retaining all the eccentricities of Curtis with none of his faults.

Seats are now on sale at the reserved seat office of the theatre.

ROLAND REED.

The representative American comedian, will appear at Funke's on Thursday evening next, in "The Woman Hater," which was written originally for John T. Raymond. When Roland Reed walks on the stage looking like a newly renovated edition of Senator Evarts of New York, the fun begins, and from that time to the end of the play it never ceases. He is Samuel Bundy, the woman hater, who instead of detesting the fair sex, as he leads everyone to believe, was really in love with every woman he meets and planning wedding tours all over creation and back again. Under an irascible exterior he carries a heart so fractured and splintered by the darts of cupid that it resembles the halo around a spot made on ice by a hard fall. After a severe mental effort he finally works his courage up to the proposing point, and is so perfectly enraptured by his success that he proposes three times in rapid succession. Of course, they accept, and he is placed in a position of such exquisite torture in his wild desire to escape, that taking him to a lunatic asylum is all that keeps him from going crazy. The whole performance is exceedingly ludicrous. The supporting company is excellent in every respect.

BOOTH-BARRETT.

The eminent tragedians, Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett will appear at Funke's opera house on Thursday evening, April 12th, in a grand production of the historical tragedy of "Julius Caesar." Mr. Booth appearing as Brutus and Mr. Barrett as Cassius. The management of the Funke being opposed to the system of auction sale of seats, inasmuch as it compels one man to step aside and give place to another of heavier pocketbook, adopted the plan of a subscription sale for the first choice of seats. This method is truly a satisfactory one, as a large subscription sale shows.

On Monday morning at nine o'clock the doors of the opera house will be opened and numbers given to all who have not signed the list. The chart will be placed on the stage, and the names of signers of subscription called. They will then come forward, one by one, and select seats in rotation. It is expected there will be about 300 names on the list, after that numbers will be called enabling those who have not signed the list to select the remaining seats at prices ranging from $2, $3 to $4, according to location.

Excursion parties have been made up from Leatrice, Blue Springs and Wynnewood, Seward, Grand Island, Wahoo, Fremont, Friendville, Tecumseh and a number of other places. Excursion parties will each have their representative present Monday to select their seats, thus according them as good opportunities as our own people.

The engagement of the Booth-Barrett combination will be the grandest theatrical event in the history of the west, and our people should show their appreciation of the enterprising management of the Funke opera house in thus bringing here at a heavy expense, these great tragedians—by turning out en masse and standing by home enterprises and home institutions.

STAGE TALK.

Miss Lilian Olcott's suit against the Franco-American Dramatic Agency for the rights to perform "Theodora" will be tried in New York before the close of the present month, and the plucky young actress confidently expects to win her case.

The fastest railroad trip on record between San Antonio and El Paso, Texas, was made by the Booth-Barrett company on their special train, which consisted of the private palace car, "Junius Brutus Booth," a Pullman sleeper and a baggage car with four relays of engines. The distance of 710 miles was made in fourteen hours. The train reached El Paso in time for the evening performance, which was witnessed by a packed house at $5 each for seats.

Miss Lois Fuller, who plays the part of U's tane in "She" is nothing if not independent. She is a charming little lady personally, and it is a well known fact that she has more friends in and out of the dramatic profession than any one of the young actresses now on the stage. She recently went into the dining room of a vestibule car for dinner. The service wasn't very good, and it was a long time before she was served, and as a result she took her time dining. The floor-walker, who wore a blue suit and brass buttons, objected to one young lady having so much time. He went into the pantry, made a brief speech full of fire, and said that he couldn't see any reason for one girl taking up so much valuable time in a dining-room car. Miss Fuller heard the fellow and his insulting remarks. Laying down her knife and fork she awaited a favorable opportunity, and then called the "floor walker." Here is what she said: "Sir, here is my card. Present it to the manager of our company and he will treat you nicely. I will also send you one of my photographs. I meet so few gentlemen attaches of horse and steam cars on my travels that it's really a pleasure to meet such a charming gentleman as yourself. A little coffee, please." He accepted the card, the passengers grinned and the man looked as though an exit through a trap door in the car would about suit him.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Lincoln to Have a Way-Up Club—Some Players on Hit.

The prospects of Lincoln's having a rattling good team for this year are very bright. Nearly enough money has been pledged, and there is little doubt of securing the balance. The people of Lincoln should properly support the club this year, and it may be relied upon that the Western association, if enough interest is manifested this season, will give us a franchise next year. There is doubtless but one outcome to the controversy in Kansas City and that will be the overthrow of Menges' club. Lincoln is regarded by both Spaulding and Morton as a river town and her proximity to Omaha insures us the first vacancy. While the club this year will probably not be as strong as Iowa's invincibles, the different clubs of the league will be more evenly matched and more interesting games may be looked for. A six-club league is what it looks like now. Leavenworth, St. Jo and Hutchinson have their teams about completed, and Denver and Lincoln are working on theirs. Either Hastings or Pueblo will make the sixth club. Hastings people are willing to put up several thousand dollars if the right man will take hold and run it. Pueblo is working hard and may secure the franchise, although Hastings is Lincoln's choice.

There is plenty of good base ball talent to be had and Mr. J. A. Keith, who is conducting negotiations, has a number of applications from good players.

Contracts have been sent to the following men for their signature:

McArthur of Detroit, who did most of the twirling for Charleston last year, an excellent pitcher who has done some work for the Detroit league club.

Jas. Casey of St. Louis, a first baseman recommended by Dave Rowe, who can cover the initial bag with the best of them, and is also a good hitter.

Fitzsimmons of last year's St. Joe and Denver teams, a way up pitcher whom the three strike rule just suits.

Larry Welch of Springfield, Ohio, who played in the field for Hastings last year, whose work our people are familiar.

Eddie Tooley, the crack left fielder, was signed yesterday. Eddie says he is in fine trim and will do great work this year.

C. J. Devlin of Philadelphia, a catcher, who comes well recommended.

John Huston, of Trenton, N. J., a pitcher who won considerable renown last year as the star twirler of the international league.

The score card and booth privileges are to be leased, as well as space on the fence for advertising. Full particulars regarding which will be furnished on application to Mr. Keith.

Omaha and Dubuque open the base ball season at the former place Sunday, April 8, in an exhibition game. The regular season will open the 23d at St. Paul at Omaha.

Mr. A. E. Howard, the attorney, is now located in rooms in Capitol block, over Union Savings bank. Mr. Howard is the best read and most able of the younger members of the bar, and any case entrusted to his care will be vigorously pushed. He has been very successful so far before the tribunals of justice, and has a bright career before him.

A general rehearsal of the Judas Macabean chorus was held at the Congregational church last evening. Excellent progress is being made.

An Imperative Necessity.

What pure air is to an unhealthy locality, what spring cleaning is to the neat house-keeper, so is Hood's Sarsaparilla to everybody at this season. The body needs to be thoroughly renovated, the blood purified and vitalized, the germs of disease destroyed. Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all other blood disorders are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the most popular and successful spring medicine.

Very Obliging.

"I say, boy, stop that ox."
"I haven't got no stopper, sir."
"Well, head him then."
"He's already headed, sir."
"Confound your impudence, turn him!"
"He's right side out already, sir."
"Speak to him, you rascal."
"Good morning, Mr. Ox."

THE YOUNG PEOPLE.

A Youngster Who Did Not Take to Boarding House Life.

Little Fred D.—and his father and mother were going to board with a neighbor for two weeks, while the house was undergoing repairs. Fred was delighted at the prospect.

"Mamma," he said, "didn't you say I must thank God for every good thing?"

"Yes, Fred."

"Shall I thank him because we are going to board?"

"Yes, if you like."

When the two weeks had expired, and the last dinner at the boarding house had been eaten, Fred leaned back in his chair, and having a long sigh of relief, said, in the hearing of the hostess:

"Now let's thank God we've got through boarding."—Boston Globe.
